

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1: Into Reconstruction and Out Again	1
Chapter 2: Forces of Change (1890-1897)	34
Chapter 3: Practical Politics: White Supremacy Campaign of 1898	56
Chapter 4: Eve of Destruction	94
Chapter 5: November 10: “Hell Jolted Loose”	121
Chapter 6: Resounding Change	156
Chapter 7: Destiny of a Race	193
Chapter 8: Rebuilding	222

Appended Materials

Appendix A:	African American Biographical Sketches	260
Appendix B:	African American Churches in Wilmington	280
Appendix C:	Changes to Wilmington’s Charter, 1868-1901	284
Appendix D:	New Hanover County Tax Lists: 1897 and 1900	290
Appendix E:	Wilmington Schools	327
Appendix F:	Roster of WLI and Naval Reserves	338
Appendix G:	“ ‘Ever Threatened ... Ever in Need:’ Alexander Manly’s Confrontation with the Democratic Campaign in 1898 North Carolina,” by James Vincent Lowery	346
Appendix H:	Psychology of the Wilmington Riot	354
Appendix I:	Essays on Wilmington Crime, Economy and Corruption prior to 1898	358
Appendix J:	Letters to President McKinley	368
Appendix K:	City Directory analysis	384
Appendix L:	Property Transactions by African Americans with J-Z Surnames	393
Appendix M:	“Remembering 1898: Literary Responses and Public Memory of the Wilmington Race Riot” by James Vincent Lowery	413
Appendix N:	Timeline	429
Appendix O:	“1898 Wilmington Race Riot Economic Impact Analysis” findings by Tod Hamilton and William A. Darity, Jr.	437

Bibliography